Dear Friends,

We appreciate your support and interest in Georgia gardens and know that you understand the importance of preserving our historic gardens. One of the missions of The Garden Club of Georgia is to provide matching grants to preserve these historic gardens. The Historic Landscape Preservation Committee of the Garden Club of Georgia, Inc. is pleased to have the award winning author Tara Dillard, speak on Modern Garden Design with Historic Inputs. This fundraising event will feature lunch followed by lecture and book signing at Berry College, Rome, GA on Wednesday, April 26, 2017. Oak Hill, Martha Berry's House and Gardens, will be open to attendees following the book signing.

All funds raised will benefit the Historic Landscape Preservation Grant Fund of the Garden Club of Georgia, Inc. for the restoration of Georgia's historic non-profit landscapes and gardens. Past recipients of the grants include Berry College, Oconee Hill Cemetery, Historic Oakland Foundation, LeConte Woodmanston Foundation and the Columbus Museum.

Tickets for the event are $40 per person. We encourage support of this event by becoming a sponsor at one of the levels mentioned on the enclosed letter and flyer. Sponsors will be recognized in Garden Gateways, the official publication of The Garden Club of Georgia, which reaches 13,000 members quarterly.

Thank you in advance for supporting The Garden Club of Georgia's historic preservation efforts. The Garden Club of Georgia is a 501c3 corporation. Your sponsorship and/or ticket orders may be sent to Garden Club of Georgia, c/o Marie Purser 25 Apple Barrel Way, Taylorsville, GA 30178 using the enclosed form.

Sincerely,

Edna McClellan
